Indian Law and Administration Syllabus for M. A. II (Semester III)

Preamble and Objectives:

This course is one of the electives offered for MA Part II Semester III. Course encompasses study of two of the four prime goals of human life, Dharma and Artha. It prompts a traditional understanding of various texts associated with Dharmashastra and Arthashastra. It also throws light on development of these ideas by introducing medieval texts like Viramitrodaya.

Along with textual understanding, the course aims at motivating students to undertake a comparative analysis. It also makes these subjects relevant by assignments on application of theoretical knowledge to modern world affairs. Course aims at empowering the student with a holistic and comparative understanding of law and administration in ancient and medieval India.
